

TAMARA MURPHY

AND

The Golden Tone Retrievers

Tamara Murphy and The Golden Tone Retrievers is the new project led by bassist, Tamara Murphy. As a bassist she is well-known, performing with the likes of Kate Miller-Heidke, Ali McGregor, Frente!, Harry Angus, Nat Bartsch and Paul Grabowsky amongst many others. She now steps from the back of the stage to the front, leading this stellar new band as a vocalist/bassist.

Remind Me Not to Forget is the first full-length album from Tamara Murphy and The Golden Tone Retrievers (released in October 2024). This lush album flips between genres, from introspective dream-pop worlds to extroverted 80s-rock anthems, glimpses of electronica and folk music textures, intricately detailed soundscapes and moments of chaos, all held together with strong melodic themes.

Line up:

Tamara Murphy – bass, vocals

Fran Swinn- guitar
